

January 2012

The Club will be closed for all of January 2012

Like in past Januarys, the Board of Directors has decided to charge the January minimum. This minimum cannot be applied to any other month, nor can it be carried over for those who have an accumulative minimums. The money will be used to make minor repairs and help offset fixed operating costs.

For those members who are billed on the 15th of each month, you will have the following days to complete your December minimum—December, 16, 17, 18, 22, 23, 28, 29, and 30th. Please check your December calendar that was mailed to you or go to www.valparaisocountryclub.com for dates and times we are open.

We will reopen Saturday, February 11, 2012. On that night we will have our Valentines Day dinner. For those members who are billed in the middle of the month, this day will be manually moved and applied to your February minimum. Watch for our Valentines Day menu.
